

Invitation to the scientific workshop

Quantification and Valuation of Ecosystem Services in Agriculture and Forestry Data, Scientific Methods & Policy Instruments

27. June 2025

Federal Institute of Agricultural Economics, Rural and Mountain Research (BAB)
Dietrichgasse 27, 1030 Vienna, Austria

Agriculture and forestry influence the provision of diverse ecosystem services. The aim of the workshop is to summarise the current state of scientific knowledge on methods of quantification and monetary valuation and on policy instruments to remunerate ecosystem services. Researchers from various disciplines will discuss recommendations for action for science, administration and politics.
